

Russell Christensen, Esq.

Russell Christensen is the Assistant Chief Counsel for Litigation and Information Law at the Federal Aviation Administration.

Mr. Christensen oversees Agency litigation, information law, national security and emergency management, congressional oversight investigations and e-discovery. Russ is an experienced employment law attorney and was lead Agency Counsel on several high dollar, and high-profile class actions where he regularly provided updates to agency executives and to the FAA Administrator.

Russ also provided advice on issues relating to the Americans with Disabilities Act , ADA Bachelor of Arts from the University of Maryland. In addition to volunteering with the Armstead-Barnhill Foundation Russ is very active with humanitarian issues through the Mormon Church.