

Lisa Baccus, Esq.

Prior to her appointment as a Board Member, Ms. Baccus served as an ABF volunteer for more than ten (10) years. She is a creative leader with extensive senior management skills. Ms. Baccus served as the Deputy Assistant Chief Counsel for a large Federal Government agency responsible for its Ethics and Financial Disclosure legal programs. In her professional capacity she also led internal committees and work groups focused on resource allocation and funding strategic planning. In her personal capacity, Ms. Baccus served as Business Manager for a small black-owned DC tourism business for 3 years. She currently volunteers at the Smithsonian's National Museum of African American History & Culture in Washington, DC.

Education: B.S., Howard University, J.D. Rutgers University, Newark New Jersey